WORK EXPERIENCE

2013

MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS

I am member of the staff of Minister Emma Bonino, in charge of economic diplomacy and attraction of foreign investments. In this field, I took part in the Destinazione Italia project, the Government flagship initiative for increasing the attractiveness of Italy for foreign investors. I also deal with communication and ghostwriting.

ENEL GROUP

I worked as Assistant of the Executive Vice President responsible for External Relations. In this capacity I dealt with a wide range of tasks of the External Relations function, including: institutional affairs, communication, advertising, media relations, stakeholder mapping and management. I was also in charge of speechwriting for the CEO, the President and the Executive Vice President.

CONFINDUSTRIA, YOUNG ENTREPRENEURS

I was member of the Staff of the President of Young Entrepreneurs of Confindustria, the main organisation representing Italian manufacturing and services companies. I was in charge of managing projects and preparing documents for bilateral meetings, speeches, press conferences and articles of the President.

PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE, G8-G20 SHERPA OFFICE, ROME

I was part of the Coordination Team of the Office, a policy unit created for managing the Italian Presidency of the G8. I coordinated, together with two other colleagues, the work of around twenty experts in many relevant fields of international politics: economy, energy, climate change, development. I gave advice to the Prime Minister's Personal Representative (Sherpa) in the preparation for the Toyako and L'Aquila G8 Summits, and Washington, London and Pittsburgh G20 Summits. I took part in drafting and negotiating the L'Aquila Leaders' Declarations. In the G8 Office, I was also responsible for the "Innovation" and "Intellectual property" dossiers.
